

Police Management of a Mass Shooting with the Incident Command System

Presented by:
Lt. Travis J. Cox
904.343.5193

Travis.cox@jaxsheriff.org

Jacksonville Landing Mass Shooting

August 26, 2018

- 12 victims
- Response
- Scene
- Footprint

Learning Objectives

- Identify key factors in transitioning from patrol command to an Incident Management Team
- Describe priorities for the Incident Management Team once they have taken command of the incident
- List responsibilities of an Incident Management Team post incident

PATROL → IMT

- Briefing
- Embed
- Assign roles
- Parallel Mgmt
- Notify
- Manage

MANAGE THE INCIDENT

- Establish Objectives
- Set priorities
- Create battle rhythm
- ICS Principles

LESSONS LEARNED

- Assumptions
- Policy
- Response partners
- Spontaneous volunteers and donations
- Political influence

POST INCIDENT CONSIDERATIONS

- Reunification
- Witness holding
- Returning property
- Survivor service center
- After action meeting/report
- Policy review/change

Police Management of a Mass Shooting with the Incident Command System

Presented by:
Lt. Travis J. Cox
904.343.5193

Travis.cox@jaxsheriff.org