Your VIP invitation to connect with fire chiefs and chief officers. Meet one-on-one with every department at this intimate 48-hour event.

UPCOMING EVENTS:

Dallas, TX – May 13-15, 2019
Columbia, MD – November 4-6, 2019
Interact with Intention

The #1 sales skill is listening and this event provides abundant opportunities to listen to fire service leaders. Gain important intelligence from current customers and prospects that you may not receive through local representatives or dealers. Be sure to send the right people to engage in this thought leadership exchange.

conneXions IS
- A small, intimate group of up to 45 people
- Relevant leadership education
- 45-minute one-on-one meetings with every department

conneXions is NOT
- A large conference or trade show
- A formal group presentation or sales pitch
- A self-selection process

“Even though my department has had a working relationship with most of the vendors that participated in conneXions, I learned something new and informative about each of them.”

Shawn Shelton, Fire Chief, City of Pueblo (CO) Fire Department “Incredible opportunity to get close to decision makers truly interested in your product.”

– Tim Riley, TargetSolutions

Produce Results

You would be amazed at what Chiefs don’t know about you – this event provides a reality check! Companies report outcomes such as:

- Educating the leaders of the fire service about your company products and services
- Gaining actionable intelligence and insights that will impact R&D efforts
- Addressing concerns that can result in the generation of new or renewed business

Connect with Leaders

Leverage years of knowledge, experience and wisdom to position your company as a thought leader.

Key activities include:

- “Shakers” Education Session: a 2-hour facilitated discussion on departments’ challenges, priorities and solutions
- Leadership Address: listen to speakers from within and outside the fire service to support your leadership growth
- Meals: sit at different tables to maximize relationship building

“We have secured business by being at this event.”

– Gary Rhodes, Globe
