

Trevor Wilson EFO Bio

Trevor Wilson, the division chief of planning for the Indianapolis Fire Department (IFD) in Indiana, began his career in 2004 with the Warren Township Fire Department (Indianapolis, IN). After Warren Township merged into IFD in 2007, he ascended to the ISO and Accreditation Manager role, instrumental in IFD's attainment of internationally accredited status in 2020. His contributions extend beyond the local sphere, as evidenced by his involvement with the Center for Public Safety Excellence. Notably, is a co-facilitator for the Michigan-Ohio-Indiana-Kentucky Consortium, a peer assessment team leader, and a contractor for the Technical Advisor Program. Chief Wilson's dedication to professional advancement is further exemplified by his membership in the IAFC's Technology Council Committee and his regular presentations at international conferences. Additionally, he has co-taught the planning section of the Fire Chief's Executive Training Program at the Indiana Fire & Public Safety Academy for the past three years.

Chief Wilson graduated from the National Fire Academy's EFO program in 2022, complementing his educational foundation—a Bachelor of Science in Secondary Education from Indiana University and a Master of Science in Management and Leadership from Western Governors University. Currently, he is navigating the admissions process for Marian University's Doctor of Education in Organizational Leadership program. Moreover, Chief Wilson holds the esteemed Chief Fire Officer credential from the Commission on Professional Credentialing.

Looking ahead, Chief Wilson is committed to fostering camaraderie and professional growth within the fire service community. As the director of the EFO Section's Great Lakes Division, he will spearhead in-person events, bolster program recruitment efforts, and serve as a valuable networking resource for all section members. Collaborating across divisions, he aims to enhance professional development opportunities throughout the fire service in alignment with the IAFC's Company Officer and Professional Development sections.
